

Invitation - Free Admission & Buffet Lunch
(kindly provided by Humphrey Feeds)

Housing and Ventilation for Good Free Range Welfare
With Practical Session – Post Mortem Examination of Poultry

ADAS has now arranged a second series of events for egg producers, as part of the 'Livestock Health South East' project. As before, this initiative is funded by the South East England Development Agency (SEEDA), through the Rural Development Programme for England. Further details are available at www.livestockhealthsoutheast.org.uk.

These meetings will be held at two different venues in July and will be 'daytime' (not evening) events. The programme at each meeting will feature:-

- Housing and Stocking Policy Effects on Welfare – Mick Dennett (Humphrey Feeds)
- Control of Ventilation and Temperature – Justin Emery (ADAS)
- Summary of Current Poultry Health Issues - David Parsons (Poultry Veterinarian) followed by:-
- Post Mortem Examination of Poultry – Demonstration and 'D.I.Y.' Opportunity for Egg Producers

Meetings will be held at the following venues:-

Wednesday 8 July	Plumpton College, nr. Lewes, East Sussex
Thursday 9 July	Sparsholt College, nr. Winchester, Hampshire

Each meeting will start with coffee at 11.30am and lunch will be provided. The meetings are scheduled to end by 4pm

All places must be booked in advance and numbers for the practical sessions will be limited. To book a place or to register your interest in this course in another part of the South East, please contact Lynne Holmes at ADAS by email lynne.holmes@adas.co.uk. Alternatively, telephone 01522 751374 or fax 01902 748958. Further information will be forwarded before each event.

Places can also be booked direct by telephoning 07549 843380 or by emailing info@livestockhealthsoutheast.org.uk, quoting course references A04/1 (Plumpton) or A04/2 (Sparsholt).
